THE NEW YORK NATIONALS GET SQUARE WITH QUAKERS.

Clear Hitting Enables Them to Make a Strong Finish—Brooklyn Come Out of the Small End of the Horn Again in Boston—Reds Find the Cardinals Easy.

More weather of the kind to point out the foreshadowing and foolishness of opening the baseball season so early revealed yesterday, and the game was played with arctic trimmings. The winners in the National league were the New Yorks, Boston and Cincinnati. The New Yorks, who with the Philadelphia's, the Brooklyn's, who were world beaters on the Southern trip when playing minor leagues, won another victory in the Hub, and the Cardinals furnished a snap for the Reds.

There was more closeness than excitement yesterday's ball game at the Polo Grounds. The New Yorks won by a score of 6 to 5. The game was a close one, with the New Yorks leading 5 to 4 in the ninth inning. The game was a close one, with the New Yorks leading 5 to 4 in the ninth inning. A single by Dahlen also counted and made up for that player's poor hitting. Thomas then hit a home run, which was the first of the game. ## AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Washington Excel the New Yorks With the Stick and Win the Third Game.

Manager Griffith of the New Yorks thinks his pitching staff is much stronger than last year, but so far there has been but little evidence that the old weakness has been eradicated. Griffith's pitchers were hit hard yesterday, and the Washingtons won, and it was the second time this season that a New York pitcher has been taken out of the second time in three games. By way of coincidence the New York Nationals have changed pitchers in both their games. The Philadelphia made it two out of three from the Boston, and the Detroit checked the world's champions.

The results:
Washington, 9; New York, 4.
Detroit, 3; Chicago, 1.
Philadelphia, 3; Boston, 2.

WASHINGTON, 9; NEW YORK (A. L.), 4.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—After struggling along with Washington in a scoreless game for six and a half innings to-day and twice catching up with Washington a lead by the New Yorks, the New Yorks were overwhelmed by five runs in the seventh inning by their opponents and lost this game.

Keefe, Griffith's pitching recruit from Montreal, was hit safely eight times, being given three bases on balls, hitting a batter and making a wild pitch up to the time he was relieved by Clarke. After retiring two men in the sixth inning, Walter struck out the third man and left the score 4 to 3 in favor of Washington in the sixth inning. In the first half of the seventh inning the New Yorks tied the score for the second time. Then came their undoing in the second half of the seventh. Clarke could not get the plate for the first man at bat, Case Patten, who is the easiest batter to be disposed of among the Washingtons. This created the trouble, and a merry-go-round of the bases for Washington ensued. Janley singled and Schaffly moved both runners up a base on a sacrifice. Then a larkson purposely walked, crossing the bases to Clarke. To the surprise and consternation, Jones pounced the ball over Conroy's head for two bases, scoring Patten and Janley, and putting Conroy on third. Altieri's fly to Hoffman scored Conroy and moved Jones to third. Anderson's fly brought Jones home on a two-bagger and scored himself on Patten's single, bringing up the total to five runs in this inning. The score:
